

Purity Spring Resort A Family Tradition

THE POLAR EXPRESS PACKAGE!

November 26 - December 19, 2010

Join us aboard The Polar Express, a magical journey to the North Pole.

This experience includes a wonderful evening train ride, a sea of elves, and of course, Santa himself! This adventure is the Mt. Washington Valley's rendition of the children's book, The Polar Express©, written by Chris Van Allsburg and published by the Houghton Mifflin Company.

The Polar Express departs this December and heads to the North Pole from the center of North Conway Village. The train is full of children and adults, dressed in their pajamas, about to live the experience of the little boy in The Polar Express©.

This event is greatly enhanced and brought to life with the collective efforts of many volunteers, all dressed in appropriate outfits, along with an extremely dedicated staff. Together they all help our guests to truly believe.

The Polar Express experience is magical and fun for all ages. It is encouraged for everyone to wear their favorite PJ's.
